The National Scout and Guide Symphony Orchestra (NSGSO) and National Scout and Guide Concert Band (NSGCB) are open to members of Scouts and Girlguiding aged 12-25. Musicians come together from across the UK to take part in our summer course, led by professional conductors and tutors, culminating in several show-stopping concerts.

In 2025 we are celebrating the 50th anniversary of the NSGSO, along with the 10th anniversary of the NSGCB in its current format. Both ensembles will be joining together to perform two bumper concerts, presenting a repertoire that pays tribute to their collective 60 year history.

We are expecting 2025 to be our biggest course yet, and we want YOU to be a part of it! Turn over to find out how you can get involved, as a participant of one of our ensembles, or by joining us at our concerts.
